CHEF HOSTS TOY GIVEAWAY ON CHICAGO'S SOUTH SIDE

Chicago Native and Marine Corps Veteran Quentin Love Hosts Annual Holiday Toy Giveaway for Children at New South Side Restaurant

CHICAGO, IL, DECEMBER 23, 2023 — Veteran, restaurateur, and chef Quentin Love is teaming up with volunteers and community partners through his non-profit Love Foundation to spread holiday cheer to children and families on the city's South Side.

Starting at 11 a.m. on Saturday, December 23, volunteers will hand out toys to children 12 and under at the newest TurkeyChop located at 7907 S. Champlain Avenue, Chicago, IL 60619. Children must be present to receive a gift. Toys, electronics, and gifts will be handed out until everything is gone!

The Love Foundation is proud to partner with Terry Community Tree and Pie Guys Bakery & Cafe for this annual holiday tradition. Love and his sister Marissa Terry, chef and TurkeyChop co-owner, opened the Southside location earlier this month.

Quentin Love is a Chicago native, Marine, Desert Storm veteran, chef, restaurateur, CEO of Bikettle spin studios, author, and philanthropist. For over 30 years, he has been committed to improving the lives of Chicagoans living in underserved communities. Love has been featured on the Food Network, OWN's Super Soul Sunday, HLN and in Oprah Magazine, Black Enterprise, ESSENCE Magazine, Crain's Chicago Business and The Chicago Tribune.

The Love Foundation (501c3) is a non-profit organization committed to supporting and uplifting families on Chicago's South and West sides by providing them with resources, education and mentorship for health and wellness, personal development, and economic empowerment.
